Focusing the Spotlight on the Arts in Singapore

Reader Profile

Our readers are affluent, highly educated professionals: fine art collectors, influential art critics, governmental and private sponsors of the arts, lecturers, teachers, gallerists, art students, those working professionally in the arts industry, as well as local and international visitors seeking guidance on how to enrich their cultural experience of the city.

They are roughly 45% female and 55% male.

Our readers enjoy*:

- visiting art events
- eating out
- travelling and visiting historic sites
- fashion and high-end design
- engaging with media & technology
- sports activities

Concept

The Singapore Art & Gallery Guide website, SAGG.info, offers the most up-to-date information on what's happening in the art world in Singapore.

SAGG.info lists an average of 100 art events per day on its practical calendar, which allows readers to see all events at a glance by clicking on a specific day.

No other website provides such a comprehensive overview of the local art scene!

The website lists the following:

- Current and Upcoming Exhibitions,
- Auctions,
- Workshops,
- Talks,
- Guided Tours,
- Festivals, Markets, Parties
- Events for Kids & Families,
- Performances,
- Film, and
- Open Calls.

Readers can also register to receive SAGG's email newsletter.

“We have enjoyed working with the Singapore Art & Gallery Guide, and found it to be a very effective way to promote the inaugural edition of the Singapore Contemporary Art Show to both exhibitors and art collectors. We look forward to working with them again for our next edition.”
